

Conjunctive Adverbs.notebook

Conjunctive Adverbs

a conjunction that answers an adverb question

Examples: however (but) therefore (and) nevertheless regardless

Jan 30-1:06 PM

if used in a compound sentence:

Mary studied many hours for the test ; however, she still did not pass it.

Mary studied many hours for the test , ~~but~~ she still did not pass it.

Mary studied many hours for the test ; therefore, she earned 100%.

Mary studied many hours for the test , ~~and~~ she earned 100%.

Jan 30-1:08 PM

if used as an introductory word in a sentence:

We usually go to Disney World every year during vacation.
However, this year we are going to the Grand Canyon.

I forgot to bring my lunch today. Therefore, I will not be eating until dinnertime.

Jan 31-9:01 AM

My dad ordered too much food, and I was worried that I wouldn't finish it.

Although, I tried to eat all of the pizza.

Although I tried to eat the pizza, it was too much.

I tried to eat the pizza although it was too much.

Feb 7-8:34 AM