

Decide w...

Fill in the circle that matches your answer.

1. Modern inventors register their ideas with the United States Patent Office.
 (a) ideas (b) inventors (c) understood you (d) register
2. Many inventions in the patent record were never successful.
 (a) inventions (b) patent (c) record (d) understood you
3. Imagine yourself in a pair of metal shoes.
 (a) shoes (b) understood you (c) Imagine (d) yourself

Choose the answer that describes the underlined part of each sentence. Fill in the circle next to your answer.

4. Thousands of other inventions have been equally impractical.
 (a) complete subject (b) complete predicate
5. Someone invented an unusual foot warmer.
 (a) simple predicate (b) complete subject
6. This foot warmer runs on breath power.
 (a) simple predicate (b) complete predicate
7. The wearer breathes into a funnel.
 (a) simple predicate (b) simple subject
8. Tubes carry the warm breath to the wearer's cold feet.
 (a) complete subject (b) complete predicate
9. Housework and play were combined in the Clean Swing.
 (a) compound subject (b) compound predicate
10. The motion of the swing turns a crank and runs a washing machine.
 (a) compound subject (b) compound predicate
11. With this invention, a person swings and washes clothes at the same time.
 (a) compound subject (b) compound predicate
12. The Wood-Awake alarm clock is another odd invention.
 (a) direct object (b) predicate noun
13. Its inventor was probably a heavy sleeper.
 (a) predicate noun (b) predicate adjective
14. The owner hangs this clock over the bed.
 (a) direct object (b) indirect object
15. Each morning, the clock gives its owner a wake-up alert.
 (a) direct object (b) indirect object

If you prefer to keep these Unit Tests in a separate file, remove them before you distribute the books (or have students carefully tear them out). Then distribute the tests when you are ready to administer them.