

Lesson 3 Each sentence has a compound subject or a compound predicate. Circle the two or three simple subjects that make up each compound subject. Underline the two verbs that make up each compound predicate.

1. Katie and Varsha went on a backpacking trip.
2. Squirrels, chipmunks, and lizards scampered across the trail.
3. The girls hiked to the campground and selected a campsite.
4. Varsha set up the tent and rolled out the sleeping bags.
5. Katie gathered wood and made dinner.
6. Wind and rain attacked the tent all night.
7. Katie and Varsha aired their gear in the morning sun.
8. The sunshine and crisp air were refreshing.
9. The campers caught a trout and cooked it for breakfast.
10. They packed up their gear and hiked home in the afternoon.

Lesson 4 Circle each direct object in the sentences below. Underline the indirect object. Not every sentence has an indirect object.

1. Last weekend we gave our dog a present.
2. No, we did not hand him a bone.
3. My mother bought scrap wood and shingles at a lumberyard.
4. A library book gave us ideas for the design.
5. My father sawed the wood to the right length.
6. My little brother handed me the nails.
7. I hammered them carefully into the wood.
8. The dog watched us curiously.
9. Finally, we finished the house.
10. The dog wagged his tail.