

Lesson 23 Write its or it's to complete each sentence correctly. Remember to capitalize the first word in a sentence.

- _____ a good night to look at the sky.
- That comet is now as close to Earth as _____ ever going to be.
- _____ tail is visible through these binoculars.
- It will only be visible for a few nights as it moves on _____ path through the sky.
- _____ possible to see several of the constellations tonight.
- _____ interesting to read the stories that various cultures have created about the stars.
- _____ easy to see the bright North Star.
- Do you know any of _____ other names?
- To the Navajo, _____ known as The Star That Does Not Move.
- _____ position in the sky is the same every night, and other stars appear to revolve around it.

Lesson 24 Write C after each sentence that is written correctly. Circle each incorrect usage of go and like.

- Marika said, "Roberto asked me to help him with his science project." _____
- Then she went, "I'm not sure if I want to, though." _____
- I was like, "I thought you admired his science project." _____
- "Last week you were like, he's so smart," I told her. _____
- Marika said, "He is smart." _____
- Then she goes, "But I don't like his project as much as I thought I did." _____
- I go, "What's wrong with it?" _____
- She was like, "There's nothing really wrong with it." _____
- "It's just that I'm not sure it has a chance to win an award in the science fair competition," she admitted. _____
- "I think I'd like to do a project on my own," she said. _____