

Lesson 23 Write its or it's to complete each sentence correctly. Remember to capitalize the first word in a sentence.

1. It's a good night to look at the sky. it's = it is
2. That comet is now as close to Earth as it's ever going to be.
3. Its tail is visible through these binoculars.
4. It will only be visible for a few nights as it moves on its path through the sky.
5. It's possible to see several of the constellations tonight.
6. It's interesting to read the stories that various cultures have created about the stars.
7. It's easy to see the bright North Star.
8. Do you know any of its other names?
9. To the Navajo, it's known as The Star That Does Not Move.
10. Its position in the sky is the same every night, and other stars appear to revolve around it.

Lesson 24 Write C after each sentence that is written correctly. Circle each incorrect usage of go and like.

1. Marika said, "Roberto asked me to help him with his science project." C
2. Then she went, "I'm not sure if I want to, though." _____
3. I was like, "I thought you admired his science project." _____
4. "Last week you were like, he's so smart," I told her. _____
5. Marika said, "He is smart." C
6. Then she goes, "But I don't like his project as much as I thought I did." _____
7. I go, "What's wrong with it?" _____
8. She was like, "There's nothing really wrong with it." _____
9. "It's just that I'm not sure it has a chance to win an award in the science fair competition," she admitted. C
10. "I think I'd like to do a project on my own," she said. C