

Lesson 25 Circle the correct word in parentheses.

1. "This is a (good/well) place for our secret clubhouse," said Josie.
2. "It will be hidden (good/well) by trees and bushes."
3. "Yes," said Carrie, "let's start building it while the weather is still (good/well)."
4. Josie replied, "Okay, but I also want to plan it (good/well)."
5. Then she said, "Carrie, how (good/well) can you use a saw?"
6. "Those branches will make (good/well) walls," she continued.
7. "Yes, but what can we use for a roof that will protect us (good/well) from rain?"
asked Carrie.
8. "I think that an old beach umbrella would make a (good/well) roof."
9. "What a (good/well) idea!" exclaimed Josie.
10. Carrie smiled and said, "Our clubhouse will be a (good/well) place to spend time."

Lesson 26 Write doesn't or don't to complete each sentence correctly.

1. I don't know what to serve at my birthday party next week.
2. What one person likes, another person doesn't like.
3. It would be fun to make pot stickers, but Ana doesn't like them.
4. I love nachos with hot salsa, but Vivian and Raoul don't like spicy food.
5. My mom asked, "Why don't you have a fondue party?"
6. That's a good idea, but we don't have enough forks for dipping.
7. Of course, I'll have a cake, but I don't know what flavor to get.
8. Jeremy, Sandra, and Paco like chocolate, but Deborah doesn't.
9. Finally, Dad asked, "Why don't you just have a potluck?"
10. If everyone brings a dish he or she likes, I don't think anyone will leave hungry.