

Lesson 27 Write whose or who's to complete each sentence correctly. Remember to capitalize the first word in a sentence.

1. Who's ready to go on the picnic?
2. Who's bringing the tuna sandwiches?
3. Bonnie knows whose turn it is to bring the drinks.
4. Carlos should know who's coming.
5. Whose sweatshirt is this?
6. Did somebody figure out who's going to bring the games?
7. Luke can't remember whose Frisbee he brought.
8. It belongs to the person whose name is written on it.
9. Whose ice cream is melting on the blanket?
10. I wonder who's going to clean up.

who's = who is

Lesson 28 Write to, too, or two to complete each sentence correctly.

1. The two soccer teams are taking their places on the field.
2. The team that wins this game will advance to the championship match.
3. The players are very excited, and the spectators are, too.
4. The two center forwards face each other for the kickoff.
5. Our left wing has moved to an open area.
6. Our center forward passes the ball to her, and she dribbles toward the goal.
7. After two periods, the match is still scoreless.
8. The game will be decided by a shootout; each team must choose five players to participate as shooters.
9. Our first two shooters score goals!
10. The final score is four to three in favor of our team!

too = very,
also,
as well