

Lesson 29 Circle the correct word in parentheses.

1. (Leave/Let) me tell you about my favorite activities.
2. To throw a Frisbee, (raise/rise) your arm to shoulder level.
3. Draw your hand back, and then (leave/let) the Frisbee go.
4. Once you master the yo-yo, it will (raise/rise) and fall at your command.
5. The wind helps (raise/rise) a kite into the air.
6. If there is no wind, you may need to run to get it to (raise/rise).
7. If you (leave/let) your ice skates out in the rain, the leather may be ruined.
8. My community is trying to (raise/rise) money to build a playground.
9. Right now we have to (leave/let) our neighborhood to play many of these games.
10. I never (leave/let) my little brother play in the street.

Lesson 30 Circle the correct word in parentheses.

1. In 2007, Martin Strel (swam/swum) 3,278 miles down the Amazon River.
2. No one has (swam/swum) as far since then.
3. Hilary Walker (ran/runned) 590 miles, from Lhasa, Tibet, to Kathmandu, Nepal.
4. After 14 days, she had (ran/run) the entire length of the Friendship Highway.
5. Pilot John Edward Long (flew/flown) more than 62,000 hours from May 1933 to April 1977, achieving more than seven years airborne.
6. Lyle Shelton (flew/flied) a propeller plane in a race at an average speed of 481.618 miles per hour.
7. Wang Junxia of Beijing, China, set women's records for 3,000 and 10,000 meters when she (ran/runned) in races in 1993.
8. The first person who (flew/flied) faster than the speed of sound was Chuck Yeager.
9. Kenya's Wilson Kipketer set a world record when he (ran/runned) 800 meters in 1 minute, 41.11 seconds in 1997.
10. Pieter van den Hoogenband is the only person who has (swam/swum) the 100-meter freestyle in less than 48 seconds.