

Lesson 27 Circle each relative pronoun and underline the noun it refers to. Draw a box around each interrogative pronoun.

1. What is a bobcat?
2. It is a wildcat that lives in North America.
3. The bobcat gets its name from its tail, which is short, or "bobbed."
4. You can also recognize bobcats by the long hairs on the sides of the face, which resemble sideburns.
5. Who has seen a bobcat?
6. These animals, which are shy and active mainly at night, are hard to observe.
7. What is a bobcat's habitat?
8. Bobcats live in areas that are wooded, swampy, or mountainous.
9. Mountain climbers who venture into the back country occasionally encounter bobcats.
10. For their dens, bobcats prefer small caves and hollow trees, which provide shelter and security.
11. Practically any animal that is not a predator can become a meal for a bobcat.
12. Which do bobcats hunt in the wild?
13. Rabbits, birds, mice, rats, and squirrels are some of the animals that make up a bobcat's diet.
14. Who must keep an eye out for bobcats on the prowl?
15. Farmers who keep chickens must protect their flocks from bobcats.

Lesson 28 Circle each indefinite pronoun.

1. Everyone in our family thinks that spaghetti is the best food on earth.
2. My dad knows everything there is to know about cooking spaghetti.
3. Nothing could taste better.
4. Most of us prefer spaghetti with marinara sauce.
5. My sister is the only one who likes carbonara sauce better.
6. Both are really delicious.
7. Would you prefer a spaghetti dish with meatballs or one with sun-dried tomatoes?
8. Either would make me happy.
9. Few enjoy spaghetti as much as I do.
10. No one could possibly be any hungrier than I am right now.
11. Won't someone bring me a plateful of spaghetti?
12. Everybody come to the table; it's dinnertime!
13. I can't think of anything I'd rather do.
14. Somebody pass the Parmesan cheese, please.
15. There's none left, so you'll have to eat your spaghetti plain.