

Lesson 53 Circle the antecedent or antecedents of each boldfaced pronoun.

1. Rachelle and her mother and brother drove across the United States when they moved from Philadelphia to Los Angeles.
2. Rachelle kept a diary of everything she saw along the way.
3. In her diary, Rachelle wrote about the Sears Tower in Chicago; it is a very tall building.
4. Rachelle's mother pointed out the Mississippi River to her, and Rachelle wrote about that, too.
5. When the trip got boring, Rachelle played the license plate game to pass the time; she kept track of each new state's license plate she saw.
6. The car broke down somewhere near Denver, but a mechanic fixed it.
7. The mechanic was friendly, and Rachelle wrote about him in her diary.
8. Rachelle wrote about the Rocky Mountains when her mother drove through them.
9. In Utah, Rachelle's brother asked to visit Zion National Park; he had read that the park is beautiful.
10. Rachelle, her mother, and her brother parked the car so they could go hiking in the colorful canyons.
11. In some places, the canyon walls were so close together Rachelle could touch them both at the same time.
12. Back in the car, Rachelle wrote about Zion; she said it was the most amazing place she had ever visited.
13. As Rachelle's mother navigated the streets of Las Vegas, she pointed out all the flashing signs.
14. Rachelle wrote in her diary that the lights looked like stars to her.
15. Finally, the family arrived at the Pacific Ocean, and they went for a swim.

Lesson 54 Circle the pronoun in parentheses to complete each sentence correctly.

1. (Who/Whom) is playing first base?
2. The player (who/whom) the league named MVP for last year is the first baseman.
3. (Who/Whom) or what is an "MVP"?
4. MVP stands for Most Valuable Player, a player without (who/whom) the team would be lost.
5. I have a cousin (who/whom) admires that player very much.
6. (Who/Whom) is that over there?
7. To (who/whom) are you referring?
8. I am referring to the person (who/whom) is sitting in the front row of the bleachers.
9. I still can't tell to (who/whom) you are pointing.
10. I mean that woman (who/whom) is eating a hot dog.
11. Oh, she is someone of (who/whom) you may have heard.
12. She's the one (who/whom) starred in that movie.
13. Do you mean the movie with the director (who/whom) won an Academy Award?
14. That's a person (who/whom) I would like to meet!
15. Let's find someone (who/whom) will introduce us.

Name _____