

Lesson 53 Circle the antecedent or antecedents of each boldfaced pronoun.

- Rachelle and her mother and brother drove across the United States when they moved from Philadelphia to Los Angeles.
- Rachelle kept a diary of everything she saw along the way.
- In her diary, Rachelle wrote about the Sears Tower in Chicago; it is a very tall building.
- Rachelle's mother pointed out the Mississippi River to her, and Rachelle wrote about that, too.
- When the trip got boring, Rachelle played the license plate game to pass the time; she kept track of each new state's license plate she saw.
- The car broke down somewhere near Denver, but a mechanic fixed it.
- The mechanic was friendly, and Rachelle wrote about him in her diary.
- Rachelle wrote about the Rocky Mountains when her mother drove through them.
- In Utah, Rachelle's brother asked to visit Zion National Park; he had read that the park is beautiful.
- Rachelle, her mother, and her brother parked the car so they could go hiking in the colorful canyons.
- In some places, the canyon walls were so close together Rachelle could touch them both at the same time.
- Back in the car, Rachelle wrote about Zion; she said it was the most amazing place she had ever visited.
- As Rachelle's mother navigated the streets of Las Vegas, she pointed out all the flashing signs.
- Rachelle wrote in her diary that the lights looked like stars to her.
- Finally, the family arrived at the Pacific Ocean, and they went for a swim.

Lesson 54 Circle the pronoun in parentheses to complete each sentence correctly.

- (Who/Whom) is playing first base?
- The player (who/whom) ^{him S AV} the league named MVP for last year is the first baseman.
- (Who/Whom) or what is an "MVP"?
- MVP stands for Most Valuable Player, a player ^{PP} without (who/whom) the team would be lost.
- I have a cousin ^{S AV DO} (who/whom) ^{AV} admires that player very much.
- (Who/Whom) is that over there?
- To (who/whom) ^{PP} are you referring?
- I am referring to the person ^{S HV AV} (who/whom) ^{HV AV} is sitting in the front row of the bleachers.
- I still can't tell to (who/whom) ^{PP} you are pointing.
- I mean that woman ^{S AV DO} (who/whom) ^{HV AV} is eating a hot dog.
- Oh, she is someone of (who/whom) ^{PP} you may have heard.
- She's the one ^{S HV} (who/whom) ^{AV} starred in that movie.
- Do you mean the movie with the director ^{S HV AV} (who/whom) ^{AV} won an Academy Award?
- That's a person ^{S HV DO} (who/whom) ^{S HV AV} I would like to meet!
- Let's find someone ^{S HV} (who/whom) ^{AV} will introduce us.

Remember:
"Who" would be the subject of a clause

"Whom" = DO, IO,
obj of PP —
Can usually substitute "him"

GREEN line separates clauses

Name _____