

Unit Test

16. It drops wooden blocks on the sleeper's head.
 (a) direct object (b) indirect object
17. This device could awaken anyone!
 (a) predicate noun (b) direct object
18. It might give its owner a headache, however.
 (a) direct object (b) indirect object
19. Not surprisingly, the device has never been popular.
 (a) predicate adjective (b) predicate noun
20. Which underlined phrase is an appositive phrase?
 Another invention, the carry-all hat, also may give its owner a headache.
 a b (a) (b)
21. Which is a prepositional phrase?
 Makeup and other small items fit inside this box-shaped hat.
 a b (a) (b)
22. Which is a prepositional phrase?
 A strap around the chin secures the hat tightly.
 a b (a) (b)
23. Which is a prepositional phrase?
 It was once the custom for men to tip their hats.
 a b (a) (b)
24. Which is an appositive phrase?
 The Topsy Derby, an even stranger hat, lifts up and tips itself mechanically.
 a b (a) (b)
25. Which is an adjectival prepositional phrase?
 The inventor of the self-cleaning house must have hated housework for years!
 a b (a) (b)
26. Which is an adverbial prepositional phrase?
 Each room in the self-cleaning house had a soap-and-water tank on the ceiling.
 a b (a) (b)
27. Which is an adjectival prepositional phrase?
 Jets on the tank would squirt soapy water onto the walls and the floor.
 a b (a) (b)
28. Which is an adverbial prepositional phrase?
 The dirt in the room would be washed away by the soapy waterfall.
 a b (a) (b)
29. Which is an adjectival prepositional phrase?
After the shower, a hot-air blower on the wall would dry the room.
 a b (a) (b)
30. Which is an adverbial prepositional phrase?
In the future, perhaps a new, improved version of the self-cleaning house will be invented.
 a b (a) (b)
31. Which is an adjectival prepositional phrase?
 Anyone with this invention will probably need waterproof furniture in every room!
 a b (a) (b)

ADJ
 which one?
 what kind?
 how many?

ADVERB
 when?
 where?
 how?
 why?