Decide which word completes each sentence correctly. Fill in the circle next to your answer.

1. ___ common all over the world to hold agricultural festivals.
   (a) Its (b) It's

2. People ___ land gets very little rain often conduct rain dances or similar rituals.
   (a) who's (b) whose

3. Rice farmers in Japan plant pine, chestnut, or bamboo trees in ___ fields for good luck.
   (a) there (b) their (c) they're

4. They plant rice seeds in February and ___ hold festivals when they transplant seedlings in June or July.
   (a) then (b) than

5. The rhythmic way the farmers move can seem more like dancing ___ planting.
   (a) then (b) than

6. Every year the Cuchumatan people of Guatemala go ___ a cliff where, according to tradition, frost lives.
   (a) to (b) too (c) two

7. Once they get ___, they lower one person over the cliff.
   (a) there (b) their (c) they're

8. ___ counting on him to seal the rock with cement so the frost won't ruin the corn plants.
   (a) There (b) Their (c) They're

9. ___ deities, Wuro and Dwo, are important in the farming traditions of the Bobo people of Burkina Faso.
   (a) To (b) Too (c) Two

10. According to legend, Wuro gave the world ___ balance of earth, rain, and sun, but people ruined the balance by farming.
    (a) its (b) it's

11. Dwo is the deity ___ helping people restore the natural order.
    (a) who's (b) whose

12. Each year the Bobo people ask Dwo for his help in keeping away evil and restoring order and in bringing the rains, ___.
    (a) to (b) too (c) two

13. If you study ethnology or anthropology, ___ going to learn about agricultural festivals around the world.
    (a) your (b) you're

14. Does ___ community hold an agricultural festival?
    (a) your (b) you're

Decide whether each sentence uses negatives correctly. Fill in the circle next to your answer.

15. My brother doesn't know nothing about Mayan culture.
    (a) correct (b) incorrect

Name _____